

Pastor Darwin Goshorn

Vespers Topic: "Charge" — Isaiah 43, Verses 16-21

Pastor Darwin Goshorn was born and raised on a 300 acre farm in Franklin County, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Fannett-Metal High School and Carlisle Commercial College.

He worked at the main office of Giant Foods before returning home to help his father on the farm until he sold it. He went on to work for Shuler and Alder, building homes, for 8 years.

He has two children, who both served in the military, and three grandchildren.

His work history continued at the Chambersburg Hospital for 22 years. He worked on the floors for 2 years, then in the ER for 20 more years.

It was during that time in his life that he responded to the call to pastoral ministry. He completed the Course of Study at Wesley Seminary in Washington DC.

He served as Pastor of the Orangeville Charge for 11 wonderful years, as well as in various community organizations.

He retired from there in 2014, but continues to fill different pulpits in the community of Dry Run, Fannett Township in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, in which he calls home.
